C33: King's Gambit Accepted: 3 Nc3 and 3 Bc4

[Annotation by FM Bob Eames.] I had played Jahongir a couple of years ago as black at Hastings when he was still a teenager, shortly before he became a grandmaster. It was a very sharp game in the Botvinnik Semi-Slav, which ended in a draw, which gave me a little more confidence than I would normally have playing against an opponent nearly 400 FIDE rating points higher rated, and so I knew he liked sharp complications and could at least look forward to an interesting game. 1.e4 e5 2.f4 exf4 3.Bc4 Nf6 4.Nc3 c6 5.Bb3 d5 6.exd5 cxd5 7.d4 Bb4 Strongly threatening ... 0-0. 8.Nge2

Wei Ming: 'I first came to know of 3...h6 against the Tarrasch while I was preparing a game for the National Championships in 2004. I was introduced to the variation by a friend of mine who showed me an article by Jeroen Bosch in his SOS column in NIC Magazine. 5 years have passed and nothing has risen to challenge the existence of this variation. I met Miklas Galyas while I was in Budapest in 2007 and he is easily one of the nicest players I've ever seen. However, he is not quite as nice over the board as we can see from the following game:' 1.e4 e6 2.d4 d5 3.Nd2 h6 4.Bd3 Nf6 5.Ngf3 c5 6.dxc5 Bxc5 7.Qe2 Nc6 8.c3 0-0 9.0-0 Qc7 10.b4N

C50: Hungarian Defence and Giuoco Pianissimo

Die nachfolgende Partie wird durch den unterschiedlichen Werdegang der Damen bestimmt. Zunächst bringt Schwarz seine Dame zu früh heraus und erlaubt dem Weißen eine schnelle Entwicklung. Schließlich läßt sich die schwarze Dame auf b8 nieder und die Stellung erscheint halbwegs gesichert. Dann jedoch schwenkt die weiße Dame elegant zum verwaisten schwarzen Königsflügel und entfacht einen heftigen Angriff. Ich verwende Kommentare von Euwe, Petrosian und Kmoch aus "Von Steinitz bis Fischer" von Max Euwe. 1.e4 e5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.Bc4 Nf6 4.d3 Bc5 5.0-0 a6 6.a4 h6N

'Rapport wins Beograd Grand Prix and Qualifies for the Candidates' A win with white in the second game of the final gave Richard Rapport tournament victory at the second leg of the FIDE Grand Prix in Beograd. Rapport beat Dmitry Andreikin after rejecting a draw by triple repetition in a double-edged position. This victory, combined with his reaching the semifinals in the first leg of the series in Berlin, places him as a clear favourite to get a spot in the Candidates Tournament. Rapport's qualification to the Candidates cannot be fully ascribed to luck by any stretch of the imagination, though. The Hungarian star did not shy away from employing his usual creative playing style in the first two legs of the series, and has demonstrated that he is particularly well-versed in dealing with imbalanced, sharp positions. The 25-year-old was happy to have scored his greatest success to date in the city where he lives with his wife, Serbian WGM Jovana Rapport. The ever modest Rapport credited his wife for this exceptional result: "Usually for me trips are connected to events and results, so of course you have favourite places, but usually they connect to when you play well... so for me Beograd will actually not be influenced by this event, as funny as it is, even though this is probably the biggest success of my career to date. It will still be influenced by my love, my marriage, my life, really, so I'm just happy that this overall beautiful picture wasn't ruined by chess. She's my only support, actually. I have to thank her for everything, for putting up with me. I'm very difficult on normal days, but during tournaments I think it goes to 100 x the volume." Dmitry Andreikin who finished 2nd, as well as Anish Giri and Maxime Vachier Lagrave retain some chances to qualify to the Candidates Tournament. However, after the second leg, Richard Rapport and Hikaru Nakamura are clear favourites. Now we will present you some of the most interesting games and moments from the Tournament according to selection of our Editorial Board. ***

In this game we revisit the gambit line 8...d6 (8...Nc6 here). This pawn offering has never been shown to be completely reliable, but Khalifman did succeed in reviving a key variation last year (see below). C50: Hungarian Defence and Giuoco Pianissimo

During the event, in public interviews, Magnus complained both of a lack of motivation, and later food poisoning, leading to him forcing a draw with the white pieces in the 2. classical game of this match, but for the deciding playoff both the joy and energy-level seemed to be there:

Während des Turniers klagte Magnus in öffentlichen Interviews über mangelnde Motivation und später über eine Lebensmittelvergiftung, die dazu führte, dass er in der 2. klassischen Partie dieses Matches mit den weißen Figuren ein Remis erzwang, aber im entscheidenden Playoff schienen sowohl die Freude als auch die Energie vorhanden zu sein: 1.e4 e5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.Bc4 Nf6 4.d3 Bc5 5.a4 d6 6.0-0 a5 7.Bg5N

C89: Closed Ruy Lopez: Marshall Attack
Welcome to this special bonus chapter !
I'm not planning to do a new video every time a top player does something in the Marshall but the Tata Steel Masters 2020 featured a game I had to tell you about. It was the game between Jan-Krzysztof Duda and Anish Giri. 1.e4 e5

DEVELOPMENTS The Dzindzi-Indian - Ideas and Trends The Dzindzi-Indian is a brainchild of the famous opening theoretician and my former coach GM Roman Dzindzichashvili. It's a fun and sharp opening known to be a bit risky at the elite level, but a great choice for playing for a win as Black. In this article we will cover the latest developments in this opening, focusing on the "refutation" lines with 6.h4! and 6.e4! C89: Closed Ruy Lopez: Marshall Attack
 Welcome to this special bonus chapter !
 I'm not planning to do a new video every time a top player does something in the Marshall but the Tata Steel Masters 2020 featured a game I had to tell you about. It was the game between Jan-Krzysztof Duda and Anish Giri. C50: Hungarian Defence and Giuoco Pianissimo

Die nachfolgende Partie wird durch den unterschiedlichen Werdegang der Damen bestimmt. Zunächst bringt Schwarz seine Dame zu früh heraus und erlaubt dem Weißen eine schnelle Entwicklung. Schließlich läßt sich die schwarze Dame auf b8 nieder und die Stellung erscheint halbwegs gesichert. Dann jedoch schwenkt die weiße Dame elegant zum verwaisten schwarzen Königsflügel und entfacht einen heftigen Angriff. Ich verwende Kommentare von Euwe, Petrosian und Kmoch aus "Von Steinitz bis Fischer" von Max Euwe. 1.e4 e5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.Bc4 Bc5 4.0-0 Nf6 5.d3 d6 6.a4 0-0 7.a5!? Recently 7.h3 got a lot of attention. Welcome! We are going to start our journey into the London System. Our piece configuration is going to start out solidly and unassuming: D4, Bf4, e3, Nd2, c3, Bd3, Ngf3. However, we are going to quickly spring our pieces forward with moves like Ne5 and h4! In this first part, we will examine the popular and passive approach where Black keeps his Bc8 inside the pawn chain. 1.d4 Nf6 2.Bf4 d5 3.e3 c5 4.c3 Nc6 5.Nd2 e6 6.Bd3

 Exchange Variation: Main line (5 Bg5 c6

 both sides This year's World Cup in Baku has brought a rematch of the last edition's final already in the third round, and there's no doubt that Kramnik vs.
 Andreikin mini-match will again produce some deep positional chess. Naturally, we are mostly interested in the theoretical outcome of the openings, superb preparation, that's probably

14.01.2024

C76: Ruy Lopez: Deferred Steinitz: 5 c3 Bd7 6 d4 g6 The 5th round has already been mentioned: an unconditional win over Flohr - 4½ out of 5! In the 6th round Fine was assailed by Alekhine, who wanted at all costs to catch up with the leader. The game was adjourned in a roughly equal ending, where each side had a rook, knight and six pawns. The obstinate Alekhine did not want to reconcile himself to a draw, and during the resumption (which took place after the 7th round) he committed a serious weakening and lost. The 7th was a key round for the overall outcome: Keres defeated Fine and began pursuing the leader, and Botvinnik also began to advance with a brilliant win over Alekhine (Volume 2, Game No.36). Reuben began the second cycle by drawing with Botvinnik. And here something cracked in his play: in the 9th round against Reshevsky he played on the white side of a 'Spanish', lost a pawn, adjourned the game in a lost endgame, and on the resumption, although Black went wrong and threw away his advantage, Fine unexpectedly lost on time. In the 10th round he defended himself with difficulty against Capablanca, and then in a sharp theoretical duel he lost ignominiously to Euwe. After this there was a change of leader: Keres - 7 out of 11, Botvinnik and Fine - 6½, Alekhine - 6. In the 12th round Keres drew with Alekhine and Fine with Flohr, while Botvinnik unexpectedly blundered the exchange and lost to Euwe. In the following, penultimate round, Fine met Alekhine, and this game was destined to decide the final top three places. 1.e4 e5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.Bb5 a6 4.Ba4 d6 5.0-0 Bd7 6.c3 g6 7.d4 Bg7 8.dxe5 Nxe5 9.Nxe5 dxe5 10.Bg5N Recently 10.Be3 got a lot of attention. 10.Le3 erhält neuerdings viel Aufmerksamkeit.

During the event, in public interviews, Magnus complained both of a lack of motivation, and later food poisoning, leading to him forcing a draw with the white pieces in the 2. classical game of this match, but for the deciding playoff both the joy and energy-level seemed to be there:

Während des Turniers klagte Magnus in öffentlichen Interviews über mangelnde Motivation und später über eine Lebensmittelvergiftung, die dazu führte, dass er in der 2. klassischen Partie dieses Matches mit den weißen Figuren ein Remis erzwang, aber im entscheidenden Playoff schienen sowohl die Freude als auch die Energie vorhanden zu sein: 1.e4 e5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.Bc4 Bc5 4.d3 Nf6 5.a4 d6 6.0-0 a5 7.Be3! now scores much better than the old 7.c3 .punktet besser als das ältere 7.c3. 7...Bxe3 8.fxe3 0-0 9.Nbd2 Be6N

During the event, in public interviews, Magnus complained both of a lack of motivation, and later food poisoning, leading to him forcing a draw with the white pieces in the 2. classical game of this match, but for the deciding playoff both the joy and energy-level seemed to be there:

Während des Turniers klagte Magnus in öffentlichen Interviews über mangelnde Motivation und später über eine Lebensmittelvergiftung, die dazu führte, dass er in der 2. klassischen Partie dieses Matches mit den weißen Figuren ein Remis erzwang, aber im entscheidenden Playoff schienen sowohl die Freude als auch die Energie vorhanden zu sein: 1.e4 e5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.Bc4 Nf6 4.d3 Bc5 5.a4 d6 6.0-0 a5 7.Be3! is recently more successful than 7.c3. ist inzwischen erfolgreicher als 7.c3. 7...Bxe3 8.fxe3 0-0
